Arlington Education Foundation provides grants worth more than $13,000 to educators

ARLINGTON- During the March 23 Arlington Public Schools Board of Directors regular meeting, the Arlington Education Foundation (AEF) gave $13,121.25 to educators in the Arlington School District.

“The Foundation has distributed more than $234,000 in grants over the past 15 years,” said AEF President Kim Deisher-Allen. “This spring, we’re excited to support 18 projects, each reflecting incredible creativity and dedication to students. Every grant helps bring ideas to life that inspire learning and create joy in our classrooms. It’s a privilege to support our teachers and be part of the outstanding work happening throughout the Arlington School District.”
